

Restorative Practice in Schools:

SUMMER SKILLS WORKSHOPS FOR EDUCATORS, STUDENTS, & ADMINISTRATORS

Hosted by SCRJI (scrji.org)

Contact: aparnap@law.sc.edu

1. Introduction to Restorative Practices

OPEN TO STUDENTS, TEACHERS, & SCHOOL ADMINISTRATORS

Our intention is that participants will complete the two-day training with the following:

- The ability to facilitate Restorative Practices / be a Circle Keeper, with skills and experience in community-building and repair-the-harm circles.
- The skills to engage in restorative conversations, using effective communication and de-escalation strategies.
- An understanding of how to carry this work forward in their personal and professional lives.

Monday, July 18 -
Tuesday, July 19

9:00 am - 4:00 pm
(box lunch provided)
UofSC School of Law
1525 Senate St.
Columbia, SC 29201

2. The Circle in Your Curriculum

OPEN TO TEACHERS & SCHOOL ADMINISTRATORS

This workshop is designed for those who participated in our Introduction to Restorative Practices workshop or have received some equivalent training. Please contact us if you have questions about prerequisites.

Participants will build upon the knowledge learned in the introductory workshop to more specifically develop plans to integrate restorative practices in their own lives, curriculum, and classroom.

Thursday, July 21 -
Friday, July 22

9:00 am - 4:00 pm
(box lunch provided)
UofSC School of Law
1525 Senate St.
Columbia, SC 29201

Cost to attend each workshop is $50 for students, $100 for teachers, and $125 for administrators. We are committed to making these workshops accessible, so please contact our executive director at aparnap@law.sc.edu if cost is prohibitive.

Facilitators

Heather Sattler (lead facilitator)

Heather is the facilitator for both workshops. She has been an educator in the Milwaukee Public Schools for over twenty-five years and is a co-collaborator with Restorative Circles, LLC. Presently, she teaches Restorative Practices at The Alliance School and facilitates workshops and training, with her students, for young people and adults from the local, national, and international communities. She also co-facilitates training with Sharon Lerman for organizations and schools. A partial listing includes: Black Health Coalition of Wisconsin, Sojourner Family Peace Center, Safe & Sound, and Highland Community School. In addition, she consults with organizations that are in the process of implementing RP. Heather received a doctorate in Education from Alverno College, an MA in Mass Communication from the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee and a BA in English, Secondary Education and Theater Arts as well as a certificate in Adult Education and Organization Development from Alverno College. She is also a certified Yoga teacher. Most of all, Heather is grateful to be walking through life with her three children as she works to co-create transformational spaces for connection and healing.

Shakira Addison

Shakira is a senior at The Alliance School who will be co-facilitating the Introduction to Restorative Practices workshop with Heather and Kweli. She has been trained in restorative practices and engages in the work both inside and outside The Alliance School.

Kweli Brumfeld

Kweli is a senior at The Alliance School who will be co-facilitating the Introduction to Restorative Practices workshop with Heather and Shakira. He has been trained in restorative practices and engages in the work both inside and outside The Alliance School.